

CENTRE FOR TRANSCULTURAL WRITING AND RESEARCH
TRANS-SCRIPTIIONS EVENT

POINTS OF DEPARTURE

Editor Jeremy Poynting presents 25 years of Peepal Tree Press publication, introducing Bermudan novelist Angela Barry who will read from her novel Gorée, point of departure.

Angela Barry lives and works in Bermuda. Her writing has been published in journals including The Massachusetts Review, BIM:Arts for the 21st Century and Anales Caribe. She is the recipient of the James Michener Creative Writing Fellowship and the Brian Burland Award for Adult Fiction, and is the author of Endangered Species and Other Stories, published by Peepal Tree Press.

Wednesday March 16th
5-30-7.30pm

IAS MR3

Special Guest: Professor Roger Bromley, author of 'Narratives For a New Belonging.'

