Dear Ms Bold,

I understand that a team from your department wish to hear from people born before 1925 in Lowestoft, regarding films
I was born in 1922.

but as my family were poor I wasn't taken to the cinema very much, but from 1936 when I was earning my own living

I went twice a week.

I can't remember many early films, although I did see the first talking picture with Al Johnson shown at the Grand Cinema in 1928.

We have a very good local historian named Jack Rose & he could tell you about all the old cinemas - the Grand, Palace, Hippodrome etc.

I'm writing because I kept scrap books of films & film stars from 1936 onwards and as I have no relatives they will probably be thrown out when I die, so if they are of any interest to you you are very welcome to have them.

Yours sincerely,

Doreen Lyell
